We need some volunteers to help get our garden area near the road & other areas, cleaned up, flower circles leveled, bushes near the sign cut/pulled, grass planted. THIS IS A ONE TIME EFFORT. Many hands make light work, quickly. Please HELP on JUNE 6, 2009 FROM 9:30 - 11:30.

QUESTIONS - CALL Larry/Carol at 749-4139. Refreshments will be served. Bring rakes, shovels, saws, trimmers.

Help Needed

We need help for the following ministries:

Liturgy of the Word with Children – at the 10:45am Mass on Sundays, one more person is needed to present and reflect the Sunday Scripture readings with the children of the parish. With four people on the team, each member of the team would be scheduled only once a month. Can you spare one Sunday a month to minister to the children of our parish?

Babysitting/Childcare – two more people are needed to offer babysitting/childcare services at the Sunday 10:45am Mass to the young families of our parish. If we could have two more people willing to help at this Mass, you would be assigned to one Mass per month.

Please see Rella for more information.

Youth Group at Lake Compounce

The Youth Group will be going to Lake Compounce on Sunday, June 7. We will leave the church parking lot at 1:00pm. If you are going to Lake Compounce you are reminded to bring your permission form, your medical release form, and a check (or cash) for your portion of the admission fee. If you have any questions, please contact Rella ASAP. Rain date – June 14, 2009.

Celebration of All First Communions and Breakfast

A celebration of all First Communions for this Easter season and a Communion Breakfast following the celebration will be held on Sunday, June 14 at the 10:45am Mass. All parishioners are invited to come and rejoice with our First Communicants. Breakfast will be hosted by the Knights of Columbus.

Golf Tournament

Haitian Ministries for the Diocese of Norwich is selling tickets to the Travelers Championship Golf Tournament (formerly known as the GHO). Tickets at the gate cost $32 but tickets from Haitian Ministries cost only $20! A great deal! ## Thank You

Dear Friends,

It was truly an amazing sight to see 93 families – Dads, Moms and their children standing behind the Cornerstone Community Center this past week waiting in line at the Foodshare truck for their bag of food. The slowdown in the economy is really having an impact on the people in our community. We are seeing many new faces at the soup kitchen and the calls seeking shelter have tripled. It is sad to have to tell someone we can not accommodate them, that all our beds are filled, knowing that there is nowhere you can refer them to because it's the same situation in all of the shelters. We try not to dwell in what we cannot do but do what we can with a grateful heart.

Thank you for your continued support and generous donation of a variety of foods to the Cornerstone Foundation. It is because of your consideration that we are able to shelter the homeless, feed the hungry and clothe those in need. You are the heart of this ministry.

Thank you for sharing and caring. You have made a difference.

*Peace and Blessings,
Helen Syriac
Executive Director
Cornerstone Foundation*

To date, our Parish has given $16,818, which represents 58% of our $28,800 goal. Thank you. If you have not yet made your pledge, please add your gift, whatever the amount, in solidarity with those who have already given by returning your pledge envelope at your earliest convenience.

One hundred percent of your ABA gift is used exclusively to support our shared Diocesan and Parish ministries across eastern Connecticut. Please be as generous as your means allow.

MAY 31, 2009

Pentecost Sunday

Acts 2:1-11 / 1 Cor 12:3b-7, 12-13 or Gal 5:16-25
Jn 20:19-23 or Jn 15:26-27; 16:12-15

How do we picture the presence of the Holy Spirit?

All four Gospels describe the Spirit descending on Jesus at his baptism "like a dove." This white, winged creature connects us often to Scripture scenes, to Noah's test for safe ground after the flood, and to our hope for peace. Artists have taken up this image often. Does it satisfy our desire to visualize God's presence?

The Pentecost scene in Acts of the Apostles uses other imagery to indicate that the Spirit is present—a loud rush of wind and tongues like fire over each disciple meant the Spirit was there. Artists paint this scene too. Can their efforts capture the sense of the Spirit's presence for us? Scripture also invites us to look for more subtle ways to see the movement of the Spirit. How else can we illustrate that God is working now, invisibly but often?

A friend of mine took me to lunch recently. His genuineness, humor, strength, challenging conversation, and charm always bring me both a strange sense of peace and new energy for action—the strength to go back to work. After lunch I dropped him a quick e-mail to thank him for lunch, for the time together, and for his holiness. He was pretty quick to shoot back an argument disputing the holiness comment. I told him I was sticking to my story. He is holy.

It's odd to think about this. I know he actually wants holiness. I also know he'll deny any claim he's achieving it. If a would-be saint claims holiness, there's a good chance for the sin of pride to show up, and that messes up the whole holiness business. But I know my friend's desire for God impacts me and other people.

It's strange business when we claim to recognize the Spirit's presence.

GOD'S PLAN FOR TITHING

Last week's offertory $ 2,504

Last year's offertory $ 4,041

“There are different kinds of spiritual gifts but the same Spirit; there are different forms of service but the same Lord; there are different workings but the same God who produces all of them in everyone.” 1 Cor. 12:4-6
By giving each of us different gifts, God made sure that the Church would have the combination of talent and treasure that was needed to do God's work. However, what happens if one of us does not bring our contribution to God's altar? God's plan is not fulfilled. Some important work is left undone.

THIS WEEK*PENTECOST SUNDAY

When the time of Pentecost was fulfilled, they were all in one place together. And, suddenly there came from the sky a noise like a strong driving wind, and it filled the entire house in which they were. Then there appeared to them tongues as of fire, which parted and came to rest on each one of them.
