WEEKDAY LITURGIES

As listed inside

WE WELCOME YOU TO SACRED HEART PARISH FAMILY. If you are new to the parish please introduce yourself to Father Stan after Mass. We would also appreciate it if you would come to or call the office and register. We need to know who you are so that we may serve you better.

SHUT INS

Please notify us of parishioners who are in the hospital. If any parishioner is unable to celebrate Liturgy with us because of illness or handicap, please notify the office so that we may bring Eucharist to them.

"Handicapped Accessible"

Welcome

The parish family of Sacred Heart welcomes you!

Whether this is one of your first visits with us or your first visit in a while; know that you are always welcome here.

Whatever called you to be with us today; know that we were all called here once, just like you were. Pray with us. Celebrate with us. Walk together with us in faith. We eat together a lot; there's always plenty of food and it's always good so please join us for that, too.

Above all, please let us know when there is anything we can do, any question we can help you answer, any need we can fill – anything at all that we can do to help you on your journey of faith.

Sangre de Cristo Health Care Project in Guatemala provides doctor's visits, laboratory exams, pharmacies, fluoride treatments for school children, dental health education program, vaccinations, deparasiting and delousing programs, dentist visits, ecology talks, tree planting, building latrines, and other programs for the needs of the poor in La Labor Guatemala and the neighboring area. La Labor is about 12 km outside of Guatemala City and as with most of the smaller villages the poverty is very high. If you want more info their web site is (in Spanish) www.proyecto-de-salud-guatemala.org or (in English) www.health-care-project-guatemala.org. It is not too late to give generously. Make your check payable to Sacred Heart Church, and note "Mission Coop" upon it. 100% of the proceeds from this collection will be forwarded.

Tornado Relief - Bishop Cote asks that you continue to remember in prayer those who lost their lives, for all who were injured, and for those who lost their homes and property in the recent tornadoes. We keep in mind all emergency responders and those who continue to assist survivors. May God's blessing be with them all!

Even if you were unable to offer assistance at Mass, you can still do so at any time. 100% of the proceeds from this collection will be forwarded to Catholic Charities U.S.A. (CCUSA). You can make your check payable to Sacred Heart Church. Please indicate on your check that the donation is for Tornado Relief.

Prayer works – it really does!

Any questions? Call Tom at 860-875-1007

HELLO! I am your envelope reminder angel. While you are enjoying the summer sun activity, don't forget your church at home.

Your help will still be needed to meet current expenses.

Please remember to use your envelopes during the summer and mail them to: Sacred Heart, 550 Hartford Tpke, Vernon CT 06066. Thank you!

Catechists Needed

It's summertime and the living is easy. So the song goes.

But summertime is also a time when we begin looking for volunteers to be catechists in our Faith Formation Program. Faith Formation will begin towards the end of September, but we need to begin to fill the need for catechists now.

For more information, please contact Rella at rella@sacredheartchurch.net or by phoning 860-875-4563.

In the Area

Be a Blood Donor -- Saint Matthew Tolland's annual Red Cross Blood Drive will be held on Monday, July 18, 2010 from 1-6 pm at St. Matthew Church. The summer months are always low donor months and the need for blood is critical during this time of year. To be a donor, please call the American Red Cross for an appointment 1-800-RED CROSS (1800-733-2767). Walk-ins are welcomed, however if an appointment is made, the Red Cross Staff will be able to assist you in a timely manner.

Come and donate blood in the month of JULY and receive a coupon for a free carton of Friendly's Ice Cream redeemable at any participating Friendly's restaurant. Friendly's hopes their ice cream will be an added bonus for all blood donors whose generosity impacts countless lives throughout the summer. Volunteers are needed at the blood drive and/or provide snacks. If you can help please call Linda Schmidt @ 871-2445 or E-mail: ctakemeaway@aol.com

Embracing Change in the Liturgy

For many people, change does not come easy. Change requires us to stop doing things a certain way in order to do something else. Many people find comfort in familiar routines and known ways of acting. Change interrupts those familiar routines. But change is also an opportunity to stop and reflect on what we are doing and to come to a better understanding of God, who does not change.

Why does the Church change the Liturgy?

In its Liturgy, the Church always attempts to follow the “norm of the holy Fathers.” This effort “requires not only the preservation of what our immediate forebears have handed on to us, but also an understanding and a more profound pondering of the Church’s entire past. . . . this broader view allows us to see how the Holy Spirit endows the People of God with a marvelous fidelity in preserving the unalterable deposit of faith, even though there is a very great variety of prayers and rites” (General Instruction of the Roman Missal, no. 9).

The Liturgy must, therefore, always celebrate and make present the Paschal Sacrifice of Christ—his saving Passion, death, Resurrection, and Ascension. However, over time, it may become necessary to make certain changes, such as adding prayers for recently canonized saints and adding texts that reflect the needs that the People of God wish to bring to God in prayer. The third edition of the Roman Missal makes such additions and provides a fresh translation of the Latin texts of the existing content of the Missal.

Who decides that the Liturgy should change?

Pope John Paul II approved the promulgation of the third edition of the Missale Romanum, the Latin text, on April 20, 2000. The final Latin edition of the revised text was published in March 2002. The Congregation for Divine Worship and the Discipline of the Sacraments was responsible for preparing the text. The Congregation is the Vatican office that the pope has charged with overseeing all matters related to the Liturgy and the sacraments. Any changes in the words of the sacramental formulas—the essential words in the celebration of each of the sacraments (either in Latin or in vernacular translations)—must be approved by the Holy Father personally. In addition, church law also gives to conferences of bishops (such as the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops) as well as individual bishops certain responsibilities with regard to the Liturgy.

What exactly is changing?

The structure of the Mass (the order of the elements, the actions of the priest celebrant, and so forth) remains unchanged in the new edition of the Roman Missal. However, the translation of the prayer texts will change to more closely reflect the original Latin texts. In some cases, new options for prayers may be available, and some old options may no longer be present.

Will the changes be noticeable?

In the third edition of the Roman Missal, almost every prayer in the Mass—those spoken by the priest and those spoken by the people—has been retranslated from the Latin to English. Some prayers now recited by memory will need to be relearned, and the familiar language of many prayers recited by the priest will change.

In preparing the new translation, the translators were asked to make the English texts conform more closely to the Latin originals and to retain traditional theological vocabulary that communicates important concepts of the faith. The language that the faithful will hear and pray is more formal and somewhat more complex than the language of ordinary conversation. It conveys rich theological concepts and retains biblical language and images.

How can I prepare for the change?

There are many ways in which you can prepare for the changes in the Mass:

- Make a conscious effort to participate more fully in the Mass each Sunday and holy day.
- Take advantage of any special catechetical sessions offered by your parish or diocese.
- Visit the Roman Missal Web site (www.usccb.org/romanmissal) to study the new texts and to learn more about the changes.
- Read the new texts of the people’s parts at Mass. Begin to study them so that you will be able to pray them well when the new Roman Missal is implemented.
- Pray for a renewal of love for the Liturgy in your parish and in the Church.

Embracing Change in the Liturgy

For many people, change does not come easy. Change requires us to stop doing things a certain way in order to do something else. Many people find comfort in familiar routines and known ways of acting. Change interrupts those familiar routines. But change is also an opportunity to stop and reflect on what we are doing and to come to a better understanding of God, who does not change.

What if I don’t like the new translation?

For most people, the unfamiliar is always uncomfortable, at least at first. The more familiar the old is, the more challenging it may be to accept and embrace the new. It is completely normal to feel uncomfortable as you begin studying and reading the new texts. Taking steps to become more familiar with the texts can help a great deal. At the same time, be open to the possibility that you will find things to appreciate in the rich language of the new texts. The more you read them and study them and pray them, the more familiar and comfortable they will become and the more you will appreciate the theological depth they convey.

Taking the time to learn more about your faith, including the Mass and Scripture, can help you appreciate the new texts more fully. Using the catechetical opportunities made available by your parish and diocese can help you overcome concerns about the changes.

Finally, you can take your concerns to God in prayer. Pray for a deeper understanding of the meaning of these texts and for an open heart to grow in communion with the Church.

What Type of Soil Am I?

The word "parable" comes from the Greek parabolē, which designates a wise saying. In the New Testament, the parable is a brief story that dramatizes a common human experience from which it draws comparisons with Christian truths. The entire story is directed to a single, central point. The rest of the details are secondary in importance.

As Jesus went about preaching the Gospel of the Kingdom of Heaven, he did not always find a receptive audience. Even when he performed miracles, some did not accept his message. The Jewish religious leaders sought to trick him, so they could later accuse him. It was probably for this reason that Jesus began teaching publicly using parables.

Many people, though they had ears to hear, their ears had become "hard of hearing." To address this problem, Jesus told the Parable of the Sower. It could also be called, "the parable of the four soils."

A unique feature of Matthew's version of this parable is the importance Jesus places on both hearing and understanding God's word: "as for what was sown on good soil, this is the one who hears the word and understands it, who indeed bears fruit. . . ."

It is reflected in Jesus' explanation of the parable. The hearer is brought into the parable and is an active participant. The hearer is challenged to ask him or herself how have I received and understood the Word of God? What kind of soil am I?

The Faith of the Church

Jesus uses parables to invite everyone to enter the kingdom, and although his message was first announced to the children of Israel, it is intended for people of all nations. There is only one requirement: the Word of God must be accepted. Jesus compared the Word to a seed that is sown in a field. The kingdom belongs to those who accept it with faith and humble hearts (Cf. Catechism of the Catholic Church 543–546).

Questions of the Week

The analogy of the soil helps us to determine how open we are to the "seed" of God's Word. The various types of soil that Jesus uses illustrate the kind of receptivity we have when God plants his seed within us.

Adults

What type of soil am I at this point in my life? What are the obstacles that may prevent me from yielding fruit?

Children

If God were to plant a small seed in me, would I be a good soil to let it grow?

Responding to God's Word . . .

This masterful parable invites us to reflect on our willingness and openness to receive the Gospel message. Today, our society presents a big challenge to those of us who are trying to provide good soil where God's Word can grow and bear fruit. We are surrounded by pessimism, fear, suspicion and above all, hopelessness.

Our "soil" is dried by forest fires that often obliterate entire neighborhoods. Mudslides and hurricanes flood and destroy our cities and our hopes. Earthquakes and explosions cover our good soil with rocks and debris. Yet, we are called to be fountains of healing to a suffering world and to provide a fruitful soil where hope can grow.

If we remain close to Jesus, we will be fruitful disciples. But if we let doubt, unbelief, anxiety and division control our lives, we will eventually destroy the soil and render the seed useless. That is how much power God has entrusted to us.

How are we going to use it? Will we care for our soil so as to be receptive to the Good News of the love of God, or will we join the culture of death that proclaims that all hope is gone?

SUGGESTIONS

Use one of these suggestions or one of your own to respond to God's Word this week.

In the home. Plant a few seeds in a small pot. Place it in a visible place so you can monitor its development and compare it with your own spiritual growth.

In the workplace or in school. Invite your friends to do a similar project in their homes or suggest a similar classroom activity.

In the community. Help some of your neighbors plant a tree, and use that opportunity to share with them the Parable of the Sower.

Meditation Moment

After fire destroyed his mansion, basketball star Kareem Abdul-Jabbar told reporters: "My whole perspective changed. . . . I think it's important now for me to spend time with my son Amir and appreciate other things besides basketball." Kareem was fortunate. He heard what many people have never heard: God's voice speaking to him through events. He saw what many have never seen: that life contains more important things than fame or money.

For reflection . . .

Can I recall a time when God seemed to speak to me? What did God seem to say?

GOD OFTEN VISITS US, BUT MOST OF THE TIME WE ARE NOT AT HOME.

Sower of Our Hearts

Lord of the fields,
You plant the seeds
of your love in the soil of our hearts and your only desire is that it grows within us and spreads until it reaches the ends of the earth.
Remove the rocks, the thorns, and anything that could threaten the richness of our soil. Make it fertile and receptive to your action in us.

We ask this in the name of Jesus the patient Sower.
Amen.

Carry this thought in your heart
as a guide for your faith journey this week.

Blessed are your eyes, for they see, and your ears, for they hear. Truly I tell you, many . . . longed to see what you see, but did not see it, and to hear what you hear, but did not hear it.

Matthew 13:16-17

Profile in Faith

Saint Veronica Giuliani
(1660-1727)

Veronica joined the Poor Clares and was assigned menial tasks.

At the age of 34, she became novice mistress and at 37, received the stigmata. Church authorities in Rome conducted an investigation, and she lost her office. But Veronica never became bitter; the investigation eventually restored her as novice mistress. Feast Day: July 10.
