July 28, 2011

Dear Father Szczapa and parishioners of Sacred Heart:

"Use your gifts to serve one another" (1 Peter 4:10). These words are more than just a salutation. They reflect my belief that as members of the clergy, we are held close to our Savior because of His deep and abiding love for us and by virtue of our Baptism and Ordination we are indeed brothers in the Lord.

Our vocation compels us to address the needs of other members of the Body of Christ: those who are in need of spiritual nourishment and guidance, who are alone or in pain, or who are in distress. By nourishing the ministries of our Diocese - our community of faith that reaches beyond the boundaries of any one parish - we share our faith with others and reach out to those in need. The goal of the Annual Catholic Appeal (ACA) is to continue the redemptive work of Christ in our world.

As you well know, the ACA is the 'financial lifeblood' of the Diocese. Through the Appeal we partner with our parishes and members of our Diocesan family to help the poor, work for justice, promote the dignity of life, care for our seminarians and retired priests, and provide programs of education and formation for all ages. These programs are available each day, throughout the four counties of our Diocese, because of the generosity of the Sacred Heart Parish Family.

I wish to thank you and the parishioners of Sacred Heart for your generosity and commitment in support of the 2011 Annual Catholic Appeal (ACA). As of today, your Parish has raised $25,963 which represents 83 % of your Parish Goal of $31,350.

Often times there is a tendency to take for granted the good that people do, the time they sacrifice, the talents they offer, and the money they freely give. Be assured that I do not take the generosity of the Sacred Heart Parish Family for granted. I realize that my words and feelings of gratitude fall far short, but I know that our loving Lord is well aware of your efforts and He will surely bless you for the work that we do together in His Name.

As we have in years past, we will implement a follow-up mailing in September to those parishioners who have not yet made their gift to the 2011 ACA. I am confident that, with your continued support, your Parish will successfully achieve your fair share of our Diocesan Campaign Goal.

In closing, I have great pride in the people of this Diocese for their continued support of the Annual Catholic Appeal and I acknowledge again the generous response, thus far, of your Parish family in support of this year's campaign.

With prayerful best wishes, I remain

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Most Reverend Michael R. Cote
Bishop of Norwich

The Deacon's Corner

Lord, time is a gift that you give us,
but a perishable gift,
a gift that does not keep.
So we must not lose time, waste time, kill time.

Lord, I have plenty of time.
all the time that you give me,
the years of my life,
the days of my years,
the hours of my days.
they are all mine.
Mine to fill, quietly, calmly,
but to fill completely, up to the brim,
to offer them to you

I am not asking you, Lord,
for time to do this or that,
but for your grace to do faithfully,
in the time that you give me,
what you want me to do.

Catechists Needed

It's the "lazy, hazy, crazy days of summer". Or so the song goes.

But summertime is also a time when we begin looking for volunteers to be catechists in our Faith Formation Program for grades K, 1, 4, & 5. Faith Formation will begin towards the end of September, but we need to begin to fill the need for catechists now.

For more information, please contact Rella at rella@sacredheartchurch.net or by phoning 860-875-4563.

Faith Formation Registrations

Registrations for Faith Formation are currently being taken. Families who were registered in the program last year have received their registration forms. If you did not receive a form for your child, please contact Rella as soon as possible.

If you are new to the parish or are registering a child in the Faith Formation Program for the first time, please contact Rella or Sandy (860-875-4563). You may also e-mail Rella at rella@sacredheartchurch.net.

Classes are held on:

Sunday mornings for Gr. K-5

Sunday evenings for Gr. 6-8 and Confirmation Preparation.

If there are enough children (Gr. K-5) interested in attending faith formation on Wednesday afternoons from 4pm to 5:15pm, we will certainly meet that need.

Registration fees are:

$60 for Confirmation Preparation;

$50 for the first child in your family attending faith formation;

$45 for the second child in your family attending faith formation;

a total of $115 per family.

If you are experiencing financial difficulties in these difficult economic times, please speak with Fr. Stan or Rella. No child will ever be denied faith formation!

Welcome

The parish family of Sacred Heart welcomes you!

Whether this is one of your first visits with us or your first visit in a while; know that you are always welcome here.

Please let us know when there is anything we can do, any question we can help you answer, any need we can fill – anything at all that we can do to help you on your journey of faith.

Please Note

Fr. Stan and Rella will be attending the New England Convocation for Catechetical Leadership in Springfield, MA from Aug. 3-7.

HELLO! I am your envelope reminder angel. While you are enjoying the summer sun activity, don't forget your church at home.

Your help will still be needed to meet current expenses.

Please remember to use your envelopes during the summer and mail them to: Sacred Heart, 550 Hartford Tpke, Vernon CT 06066. Thank you!

Welcoming the New Missal:

On November 27, 2011 we, along with all Catholic parishes in the United States, will begin using a new translation of the Roman Missal. This means that the words of many of the prayers of the Mass will be changing, both for you and for the priest. This is an excellent time to learn more about the celebration of the Eucharist, and to refresh and reconsider how we participate in the celebration.

You Can Walk on Water

In three of the four Gospels, Jesus comes to his disciples walking on the water. But it is only in today's Gospel from Matthew that Peter decides to join him. The walking on the water is properly seen as an epiphany miracle. Here, Jesus is revealed as one clothed in the power of God who subdued the waters of chaos at creation and saved Israel through the waters of the Red Sea.

What is remarkable about today's Gospel is that Peter wants to do what Jesus does. Peter is often noted for his brashness, but assuming the attributes of the creating and saving God seems excessive even for him.

Even more astounding, Jesus accedes to Peter's request and invites him to step out of the boat. It is as if Jesus was saying, "Sure Peter, you can be God too!"

As bizarre as this interchange might seem, it is not far from Matthew's point. Following Jesus is not simply a matter of living his teaching or copying his actions. The very power of Christ is given to us. We share in his divine life. Of course we are not perfect as Christ is, nor do we assume a position in the Godhead. Peter found this out soon enough as he began to sink. Nevertheless, this Gospel story insists that we carry the holiness of Christ within us. Discipleship does not encourage us to cower in the boat.

It calls us to step out in faith and do things beyond our imagining. We take that risk, knowing that if we have overstepped our abilities, Christ will be there to catch us.

The Faith of the Church

It was in their discussion of the role of priests that the bishops of Vatican II presented one of the clearest descriptions of Christ working through his followers. Christ works through his ministers to achieve his Father's will in the world. In this way, Christ remains the source and the origin of those who would do the work of the Church (Cf. Decree on the Ministry and Life of Priests #14).

Questions of the Week

Peter does not step out of the boat on a calm, sunny day. His vessel was battered by the waves and was far from land. These violent conditions are meant to remind us that when Christ calls us, fear must often be overcome.

Adults

When have I allowed fear to prevent me from speaking the truth or acting to promote goodness?

Children

What good thing is Jesus asking me to do, and if I am afraid, am I willing to ask his help?

Visit us at www.FaithFirst.com (click on "Gospel Reflections") and share today's Gospel reading as a family.

Responding to God's Word . . .

Jesus' invitation to Peter to walk on the water is a call to believe in God's power. If our success is dependent only on our own abilities, excuses will often win out over service.

You might be much better at organizing than handholding. But if there is a person in your family beset with loss or pain, Christ can call to you as he did to Peter: "Come." Even if sympathy is not your strength, Christ can ask you to be his healing presence.

You might not be the most eloquent or assertive person. But if you see cruelty in your school or workplace, Christ might invite you to stand up and speak out that such injustice must come to an end.

Many people may have more influence over others than you do. But if you recognize division or hurt marring the lives of others, Christ might lead you to be his agent of peace and reconciliation.

Christ does not only call followers. He enables them. When he charges them to act, they understand that they will not be alone. When he calls them to come, his disciples know it is time to walk on water and that he will be with them.

SUGGESTIONS

Use one of these suggestions or one of your own to respond to God's Word this week.

In the home. Identify a family responsibility for which you feel poorly equipped. Remind yourself that Christ will be with you when you attempt to meet its demands.

In the workplace or in school. Ask yourself if Christ is calling you to act in his place toward someone who is in distress or in need.

In the community. Remember a time when someone surprised you by meeting the need of another. Affirm that person in the value of his or her action.

Meditation Moment

Nobel Prize winner Dr. Alexis Carrell wrote a book called Man, the Unknown. In it, he makes this striking statement: "Prayer is the most powerful form of energy we can generate. . . . The influence of prayer on the human mind and body is as demonstrable as secreting glands. . . . Only in prayer do we achieve that complete and harmonious assembly of body, mind, and spirit which gives the frail human reed its unshakable strength."

For reflection . . .

What is one effect that regular prayer has had on my life?

MUCH PRAYER, MUCH POWER!

LITTLE PRAYER, LITTLE POWER!

NO PRAYER, NO POWER!

A Disciple's Prayer

Lord,
I do not understand
why you ask such things of me. I can point to many others who are more talented,
more patient, more courageous than I am. Would it not make more sense to call them instead?
But if you ask, I will answer.
If you call, I will follow.
If you invite me to walk on water, I will try, as long as you are at my side.
Amen.

Carry this thought in your heart as a guide for your faith journey this week.

But you are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, God's own people, in order that you may proclaim the mighty acts of him who called you out of darkness into his marvelous light.

1 Peter 2:9

Profile in Faith

The Author of 1 Peter

The first letter of Peter is addressed to "exiles of the Dispersion." The title implies a group of people who felt alienated from their religious heritage and society. The author reminds them that they possess a dignity through their baptism in Christ and that their actions share in the mighty acts of God.
