Rite of Acceptance

During the summer, Joanne Courtney Tobin has been coming to learn about the Gospel (also known as the Period of Evangelization and Precatechumenate). This time has been a time for her to learn more about God and to grow in her will to follow Christ and seek baptism.

Next Sunday, August 21st at the 10:30 Mass, we will accept Courtney into the order of Catechumens. From this time on she will be joined to the Church and will now be part of the household of Christ. We will accompany her as she continues on her journey to the Sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation, and Eucharist.

The parish family is encouraged to attend this Mass and to support her through their presence and prayers throughout the year.

Faith Formation Registrations

Registrations for Faith Formation are currently being taken. Families who were registered in the program last year have received their registration forms. If you did not receive a form for your child, please contact Rella as soon as possible.

If you are new to the parish or are registering a child in the Faith Formation Program for the first time, please contact Rella or Sandy (860-875-4563). You may also e-mail Rella at rella@sacredheartchurch.net.

Classes are held on:

Sunday mornings for Gr. K-5

Sunday evenings for Gr. 6-8 and Confirmation Preparation.

If there are enough children (Gr. K-5) interested in attending faith formation on Wednesday afternoons from 4pm to 5:15pm, we will certainly meet that need.

Registration fees are:

$60 for Confirmation Preparation;

$50 for the first child in your family attending faith formation;

$45 for the second child in your family attending faith formation;

a total of $115 per family.

If you are experiencing financial difficulties in these difficult economic times, please speak with Fr. Stan or Rella. No child will ever be denied faith formation!

COME AS YOU ARE

Paul Gurr

Come as you are
That's how I want you
Come as you are
feel quite at home
close to my heart
loved and forgiven
Come as you are
Why stand alone?

No need to fear... love sets no limits
No need to fear... love never ends
Don't run away... shamed or disheartened
Rest in my love... trust me again.

I came to call sinners, not just the virtuous
I came to bring peace, not to condemn.
Each time you fail to live by my promise
Why do you think I would love you the less?
Don't run away... ashamed or disheartened
Come as you are
Why stand alone?

Come as you are
that's how I love you.
Come as you are
trust me again.
Nothing can change the love that I bear you
All will be well
just come as you are.

LORD,

As we count by weeks and days the time until we begin to praise you with new words, the time for learning draws to a close.

We, for our part, have done all we can do to learn the meanings of the new words. By your grace, let them truly express the yearnings of our hearts.

As we have united in our study, prayer, understanding and acceptance of the meanings of the changes, so may we be united in new praise for you, our God and our Savior.

Amen.

Great Is Your Faith!

The Gospel of Matthew reflects the original refusal of some Jewish-Christians to include the Gentiles in the mission of the Church. Because of the number of Jewish converts in this early community, Matthew emphasized the mission of the Apostles as aimed to all the nations.

In today's fascinating story, Jesus breaks his initial commitment to minister only to Jews and reminds us of the story in chapter 8 when he healed a centurion's servant. Both accounts praise the faith of non-Jews and foretell the inclusion of the Gentiles in Jesus' mission. It is not surprising that this Gospel ends with what is known as Jesus' "commissioning" of the disciples to announce the Good News to all nations.

Today's Gospel passage is a message on trust and perseverance—trust that God really does care for us, and to persevere even if we sometimes think he doesn't hear us. It also calls us to realize the importance of not making quick judgments prompted by prejudices such as the ones that appear in this story.

When the Canaanite woman was compared to a "dog," which was the Jewish term of contempt for non-Jews, she responded, "Please, Lord, for even the dogs eat the scraps that fall from the table of their masters." Jesus praised and respected the faith, perseverance, and humility of the Canaanite woman and said to her in reply, "O woman, great is your faith! Let it be done for you as you wish." And the woman's daughter was healed instantly.

After Jesus' Resurrection, the early Jewish Christians understood that Christ came for all the nations. They began to minister and include the Gentiles for salvation was offered to all, Jews and non-Jews, through faith in Jesus.

The Faith of the Church

Some Jews believed that the Messiah promised by God would be a political liberator. Thus they assumed that salvation was only for them. When Jesus taught about the power of prayer and faith, he was saddened by the "lack of faith" of his neighbors and the "little faith" of his own disciples, but admired and praised the great faith of the Roman centurion and the Canaanite woman, both Gentiles (Cf. Catechism of the Catholic Church 543–546).

Questions of the Week

It seems to be endemic to the human race for some to believe they are more deserving than others. Such people tend to display an air of superiority; this seemed to be the case with the Jews during the days of Jesus.

Adults

How open am I to welcoming or helping people who are different from me?

Children

How do I get along with others who are different from me or who speak a foreign language?

Visit us at www.FaithFirst.com (click on "Gospel Reflections") and share today's Gospel reading as a family.

Responding to God's Word . . .

How many times do I ask God for help before I give up? How often do I get angry because God doesn't answer?

We have a lot to learn from the Canaanite woman in today's Gospel story. The first time she asked Jesus to heal her daughter, he did not answer. But Jesus' silence did not stop her; she kept on shouting. Then the disciples asked Jesus to send her away and he answered, "I was sent only to the lost sheep of the house of Israel." At this the woman knelt before him, begging, "Lord, help me."

Would any one of us keep on begging after we have been ignored? But there was yet another insult to come; Jesus told the woman it was not fair to give the children's bread to the dogs. What would we do if someone called us dogs? Perhaps reply rudely?

But instead, she said, ". . . even the dogs eat the scraps that fall from their masters' table." She basically admitted that she was unworthy. Jesus was touched by her words and said, "Woman, great is your faith! Let it be done for you as you wish." Wish that we all had that kind of faith!

SUGGESTIONS

Use one of these suggestions or one of your own to respond to God's Word this week.

In the home. Take time to share with one another how you feel when you think your prayers are not being answered. There is no right or wrong answer.

In the workplace or in school. Make a point this week to pray sincerely for a coworker or classmate whom you don't get along with.

In the community. Identify a family in your neighborhood that has recently moved in. Try to approach them and make them feel welcome.

Meditation Moment

USA Today showed a striking photo of a legless man, his arms upstretched in a "V for victory" sign. It was Bob Wieland, who lost his legs in a land-mine explosion. He had just finished the 26.2 mile New York City Marathon on his hands. It took him five days, but he did it. Bob's dogged spirit reflects the woman's dogged spirit in the Bible. In both cases it paid off dramatically.

For reflection . . .

How ready am I to confront the odds to achieve something I esteem?

WHAT COUNTS IS NOT NECESSARILY THE SIZE OF THE DOG IN THE FIGHT— IT'S THE SIZE OF THE FIGHT IN THE DOG.

Hospitality

God of mercy and compassion, You revealed in Jesus the Christ your desire to have an intimate relationship with all people, poor and rich, Jew and Gentile. Help us to be open to the diverse world in which we live and to have the ability to listen to everyone with respect and compassion. As Jesus cured the Canaanite woman, help us to also extend a friendly hand to those who are different from us. We ask this in the name of Jesus. Amen.

Carry this thought in your heart as a guide for your faith journey this week.

Jesus Christ commands us to pray universally, for the whole world. For he did not say 'your will be done in me or in us,' but 'on earth,' the whole earth.
