Gratitude

The Increased Weekly Giving Program is very important to our financial stability. It is also important to show our gratitude to God for our many gifts by responding to the needs of our parish. If you have not returned your response envelope, please do so at the first opportunity.

Electronic Giving

Sacred Heart is pleased to announce the introduction of an electronic option for making regular offerings. Contributions can now be debited automatically from your checking or savings account or processed using your credit or debit card. Our new electronic giving program offers convenience for you and much-needed donation consistency for our parish.

If you are currently giving on a weekly basis, you will no longer need to write out 52 checks a year or prepare 52 envelopes. And, when travel, illness or other circumstances prevent you from attending services, this program will allow your weekly offerings to continue on an uninterrupted basis.

Apply online at www.sacredheartchurch.net or pick up an authorization form and a "Frequently Asked Questions" flyer available at the doors, or ask one of your friendly staff members.

FAITH

By Stephen LaBarre

FAITH is intangible but very real.

FAITH is an abstract collection of thoughts, but at the same time a concrete way of life.

FAITH is simple in premise and yet complex in practice.

FAITH is mental, physical and spiritual.

FAITH is painful at times but healing at others.

FAITH is beliefs but also disbelief.

FAITH is belief in something or, perhaps, nothing at all.

FAITH deals with understanding yet itself is misunderstood.

FAITH is daily practice and also nightly prayer.

FAITH is a state of mind and a state of the heart.

FAITH is religion but can be non-religious.

FAITH is public and private.

FAITH is beneficiary, yet also sacrificial.

FAITH is dramatic and yet secretive.

FAITH is charity and chastity.

FAITH is toleration of others and admiration of God.

FAITH is caring about others and sharing with others.

FAITH is universal and personal.

FAITH is friendship and unity.

FAITH is structured but very free-flowing.

FAITH is celebration and suffering.

FAITH is comforting and consoling.

FAITH is mysterious and glorious.

FAITH is worship and prayer.

FAITH is the love of God and the belief in Jesus Christ.

Welcome

The parish family of Sacred Heart welcomes you!

Please let us know when there is anything we can do, any question we can help you answer, any need we can fill – anything at all that we can do to help you on your journey of faith.

Our Mass Language is Changing

THE MYSTERY OF FAITH

After the consecration, the priest will simply announce, "The mystery of faith" ("Mysterium fidei") — a declarative statement about the Eucharist now present. Venerable Pope John Paul II reflected on these words in his encyclical, "Ecclesia de Eucharistia," writing that the very thought of the mysterious gift of the Holy Eucharist should fill us with "profound amazement and gratitude." In response, the people shall make one of these acclamations:

- a)
We proclaim your Death, O Lord,
and profess your Resurrection
until you come again.
- b)
When we eat this Bread
and drink this Cup,
we proclaim your Death, O Lord,
until you come again.
- c)
Save us, Savior of the world,
for by your Cross and Resurrection
you have set us free.

All three are rooted in Scripture (1 Cor 11:26, Jn 4:42). But what is conspicuously absent is the popular current acclamation, "Christ has died, Christ is risen, Christ will come again." This line, although powerful, is not found in the Latin. In addition, it does not directly address Christ made present in the Blessed Sacrament, nor does it speak of our relationship with Him, as the others do.

Annual Catholic Appeal Results

An update on the diocesan Annual Catholic Appeal:

The people of Sacred Heart have contributed $26,088 to the Appeal. This is 83% of the $31,350 goal that was set for us and represents a higher-than-average participation rate compared to the Diocese as a whole.

28 parishes exceeded the goal that was set for them, including one parish in our Vernon Deanery – All Saints Parish in Somersville.

Overall, 15,881 gifts and pledges have been received, representing participation from 30.75% of the 51,643 families in the Diocese and totaling $3,325,444.10; which is 97.51% of the $3,400,000.00 goal.

You can still make your contribution online at <http://www.norwichdiocesedevelopment.org>

In God We Trust

Jesus says that we should give to Caesar what is Caesar’s and to God what is God’s. His words are frequently misunderstood. Jesus is not proposing parity between God and civil government, such as that implied in the separation between church and state. Jesus knows that everything belongs to God. The state we live in has some claim on what we have, but God has a claim on everything. Our life, the world around us, our family, our friends, our health, our talents, our future all belong to God.

Today’s Gospel asserts God’s sovereignty over all things. This is one of the few passages in the New Testament that directly addresses the issues of money and taxes. What could be more relevant to us today? Our economy is still struggling to recover from the worst period since the Great Depression.

Credit is either difficult to obtain or extremely overused. Jobs are few, and the value of our homes continues to spiral downward.

All these conditions make us fearful. In whom can we trust? The answer is on the dollar bill: “In God we trust.” In these difficult times, it is more important than ever to believe in God’s rule over all things, including our finances.

We try to trust in God. But while things were going well financially, we probably also trusted in money.

But now, when our monetary cushion is gone, it is clear that we must find confidence elsewhere. Now is the time to remember that in good times and in bad, in boom and in bust, the wise person is the one who places trust in God.

The Faith of the Church

The bishops at the Second Vatican Council remind us that we should work for socioeconomic development and defend justice in our world. At the same time, we should give witness to the proper value of earthly things, demonstrating the spirit of poverty and placing the work for God’s kingdom before all else (Cf. Pastoral Constitution on the Church in the Modern World 72).

Questions of the Week

The tax that Jesus discusses in the Gospel is a Roman “head tax,” which was exacted from men, women, and slaves from the ages of twelve to sixty-five. It had to be paid in Roman currency and was equal to a full day’s wage.

Adults

Is there a financial issue that worries me and detracts from my work or life with my family?

Children

Do I realize that everything important in my life comes from God and they’re not the things I can buy or possess?

Responding to God's Word . . .

When we place our trust in God, it gives us the freedom to ask how much do we need? We need a lot less than we think. Before the economic downturn, we were accustomed to live in an artificial bubble of prosperity. It was easy to confuse the things that we could have with the things we must have. Now that the bubble is gone, there is an opportunity to ask ourselves what is really important.

We might have to make adjustments in the way that we live. We may not be free to go out as often. We might not be able to buy what was previously within our reach. We might have to re-imagine the shape of our retirement. Making such changes is not easy. But we still have access to the most important things.

Family, friends, integrity, and the willingness to use what we have for the benefit of others are all things that belong to God. When we use them according to God's will, we can be happy, even if we have less money. If we render to God the things that are God's, we will not be disappointed.

Meditation Moment

Many professional beekeepers tend their beehives without putting on special veils or clothing. How do they avoid being stung? Their technique is simple. They remain perfectly calm and move about slowly and deliberately. This keeps the bees calm and cool. Thus, even when scores of bees land on a keeper's unprotected skin, the keeper does not yield to panic. Jesus also mastered the virtue of staying calm in heated situations. We see him do that in today's reading.

For reflection . . .

To what extent do I try to remain cool and in control when others attack me—even unfairly?

ANGER IS THE WIND THAT BLOWS
OUT THE LAMP OF THE MIND.

ROBERT INGERSOLL

FROM VISION BY MARK LINK, SJ

A Stewardship Prayer

Almighty
God, you have blessed me with life and
love, with family and friends,
with talents and dreams. I am gifted with food, money, and a place to live. Each day you give me twenty-four hours of time. Never let me forget that all of these gifts are yours. I do not own them but only hold them in your name.
I have them for the service of your people and the building of your kingdom. Let me use them,
freely, generously, joyfully—
always trusting in you.
Amen.

Carry this thought in your heart as a guide for your faith journey this week.

But strive first for the kingdom of God and his righteousness,
and all these things will be given to you as well. So do not worry about tomorrow, for tomorrow will bring worries of its own.

Matthew 6:33–34

SUGGESTIONS

Use one of these suggestions or one of your own to respond to God's Word this week.

In the home. Discuss together whether a part of your family budget could be redirected to serve someone in need.

In the workplace or in school. Identify someone who is struggling because a family member is unemployed. Give him or her your support.

In the community. Determine who has been most affected by any cutbacks in government services. Ask yourself if you can be of assistance.

Profile in Faith

The Lilies of the Field

In the middle of the Sermon on the Mount, Jesus addresses the worry that comes from our need of material things.

He admits that we do need food and clothing, but reminds us that if God feeds the birds of the air and clothes the lilies of the field, he will certainly also care for us.
